delicious. WEEKEND IN DAYLESFORD, VICTORIA

Readers packed their suitcases to join us for our first delicious. weekend away in stunning Daylesford. Guests rugged up for a morning tour of the farmers' market with Lake House executive chef Alla Wolf-Tasker (pictured right with delicious. editor-in-chief Trudi Jenkins) before rolling up their sleeves for trout fishing at Tuki Retreat, pizza-making at Ellender Estate, a sourdough masterclass at Red Beard Bakery and bullbar sausage-making. On Saturday night, the gala dinner at Lake House showcased the best local produce and wine. To round off a perfect foodie weekend, guests were given the chance to preview Alla's gorgeous new cafe in Wombat Hill Botanic Gardens with a relaxed lunch, before heading home. David and Michelle Oliver, who joined us from Blackburn, Victoria, said they enjoyed "a truly magical weekend of food, wine and friendship". For more photos, visit: deliciousmagazine.com.au.
